

➤ Medical Malpractice/Personal Injury

Kohlen & Patton has a team of highly skilled attorneys, nurses and staff members who are experienced in both plaintiff and defense medical professional liability claims and personal injury claims. The firm's Medical Malpractice/Personal Injury Practice Group provides daily assessments of cases involving serious injury and has developed a strategy for the successful resolution of these claims, whether by trial or settlement.

In addition to having more than 100 years of collective experience in medical legal and related tort claims, some members of the Practice Group have clinical nursing experience, all of which further benefits the firm's clients. Each member of the Medical Malpractice/Personal Injury Practice Group takes a personal interest in all aspects of a client's representation and takes a proactive role in obtaining a resolution of claims.

Above all, the Kohlen & Patton Medical Malpractice/Personal Injury Practice Group is committed to aggressively investigating and pursuing professional liability and personal injury claims which have a reasonable basis in fact, law and medicine.
