

➤ Andrew R. Leeper

aleeper@kplaw.com

Mr. Leeper is a partner with Kohnen & Patton in the Business Law and Transactions and the Banking and Finance Practice Groups. He has practiced business law since 1983, with an emphasis on corporate finance and business organization, purchase and sale. Mr. Leeper started his practice in New York City, and he continues to be a member of the New York Bar as well as the Ohio Bar.

Mr. Leeper has participated in a wide range of equity capital raising transactions, including public and private offerings by corporations, limited liability companies and general and limited partnerships. He has also been involved in structuring investments and investment vehicles, including private investment companies. Mr. Leeper's practice includes representation of both lenders and borrowers in situations ranging from simple, unsecured loans to multi-tranche, secured loans involving atypical collateral and equity participation. He also has extensive experience in assisting clients with organizing, purchasing and selling businesses, having worked on transactions ranging from the organization or purchase of a small entrepreneurial business to transactions involving a purchase or sale price of one hundred million dollars or more.

Areas of Practice:

Business Law and Transactions
Banking and Finance

Education:

J.D., Ohio State University College of Law
(1982), with Honors, Order of the Coif
B.A., The College of Wooster (1978), Member of Phi Beta Kappa

Professional Memberships:

Cincinnati Bar Association
Ohio State Bar Association

Admitted to Practice:

State of Ohio (1985)
State of New York (1983)